L O N D O N

London shirt maker Robert Emmett has carved a reputation as the specialist in both off the peg and made to measure shirts. Deserving of the reputation, Emmett London produces limited edition shirts made with the most luxurious fabrics sourced throughout Europe.

Trained as a tailor in Switzerland, Robert Emmett saw a pattern of safe design in English shirting and set out to create a brand with limited fabric runs and an overall point of difference. Fifteen years on, Robert Emmett is still producing shirts of the highest quality with an exclusive run of only 25 per style.

Emmett sells his shirts from his three stores in London and from select retailers throughout the world, including his highly successful limited edition range for Selfridges.

To help celebrate the launch of his new web site, Emmett is offering 25% off all shirts and accessories for 6 months and free UK delivery. To access this fabulous offer, quote the promotional code in store, or online when you checkout.

*This offer is not applicable to sale items and can not be used in conjunction with any other offer.
